DUNCAN'S COMMENTS:

A medium size market with relatively slow growth over the past thirty years. A fair portion of Dayton's growth came during two specific years. In 1986 revenues grew by nearly 20% and in 1994 by 21%. The number of viable stations in Dayton has remained fairly constant over the last 20 years.

Two stations in Dayton are particularly notable. They are WMMX and WHKO. Both stations have held steady in the ratings and have led the market in revenue for the last decade.
